

„Mention should be made also of Ferenc Bónis' essay on the suite-dances of the Victoria Codex and of András Benkő's report on the manuscript of a score-book from the 18th century, containing instrumental composition. (Both last-mentioned essays have a large supplement of scores.”